

Vote once a day from February 1-5 at vote.campkesem.org!

Dear Friends,

Not a day goes by that someone doesn't ask one of us, "How else can I help Kesem?"

That's why I'm delighted to tell you today - and for the next five days - we'll be holding a nationwide voting event to help us determine several of Kesem's newest chapters. And I personally invite each of you to participate every day this week (through Friday) by casting your daily vote for your favorite finalists!

Adding new chapters, through our Kesem Expansion Campaign, is a vital part of our commitment to serve more children touched by a parent's cancer. And the next five days of voting is the perfect way to help us determine where our newest chapters will be!

You can vote once per day for your favorite finalists at vote.campkesem.org from February 1-5. And please invite your friends and families to participate, as well!

Thank you for your support of all we do. Be sure to check our Facebook page next week to find out where our newest chapters will be!

Sincerely,

Jane Saccaro
CEO, Kesem
