

November 2014

Dear Friends of Camp Kesem,

We just returned from our annual National Leadership Summit at Camp Copneconic in Fenton, Michigan - one of our favorite events of the year! The Leadership Summit is a three-day experience bringing together over 400 Camp Kesem college student leaders from across the country to receive valuable training and share best practices - while developing and strengthening individual leadership skills which contribute directly to the success of our over 60 local chapters. We are so grateful to our guest speakers, participants in our fantastic career fair (which helps connect our students to other wonderful organizations), our surprise guest, Glover Quin of the Detroit Lions and our amazing Alumni Leadership Board - who shared wisdom, stories, and helped shape the future of our thriving alumni activities!

Here are a few highlights from last weekend:
